There seems to be some follows:

resson to hope that 1876 will open with a better feeling After all the liquidation of the two fast years, the fall in prices, the cuiting down of wages, the economizing of trade expenditures, the reduction of rents and the wholesale weeding cut of weak firms -after all this thorough work of reconstruction, busi-ness certainly ought to be on a basis safe enough to encourage production and a generally free: employment of capital; and merchants hould feel that they can afford to be less timid than they have been since the pants." In local strips and securities nothing has been doing of the least interest. The various city and ounty scrips are quiet, only small transactions with brokers occurring. There is some inquiry for Arkausas State terip to pay taxes with; the Vicksburg Herald quotes Mississippi State warrants at 94,995. Gold has been declining all the week; yesterday morning the street quotation in New York was 1124-the exchange was closed; brokers here were offering 112 for gold.

Memphis police and fire 803 - Buying. Belling Arkunsas S. ate Scrip....... OUR REVIEW of the cotton market last week reported middling cotton in New York at 13.5-16c, which fell on Thursday to 13 c. New Orleans quoted 12 c, but on Wadnesday declined to 12)c. Liverpool quoted 7d, but on Wednesday fell to 6 15 163. Memphis quo'ed 12]c, but fell on Tue-day to 12 9-162, and on Wednesday to 12]c. This statement shows a decline during the week in New York of te; in New Orleans of |or in Livepool of 1 16d; in Memphis of ic. The abundance of the receipts will account for these slight | ported as follows: changes in a great measure; the receipts at the United States ing 172,500 tales beyond those of the eame time last year. There has also been a decline in gold, which quoted 115; on the last day in November, and the last day or two has been down to 112;. The demand in our market for cottons above low middling is constant; for lower qualities, when clean much firmness. The New York Bullefin of Friday describes the market there as follows: "The movement has again market stupid, with the advantage mainly favorable to buyers. The demand for 'spots' was extremely limited, and came almost exclusively from home boyers, though spinners were not particularly anxious in any case, and figured very closely before pur-chasing. There was nothing to speak of sold for export and shippers openly appeared indifficient, but a scarcity of desirable freight toom was said to be one rincipal cause for quietness on this out let as some orders are thought to be awalting completion. The offerings have been fair, with about previous rates asked on the upper qualities and a show of firmness made, but all low grades in 'bulls' nor 'bears' apparently inclined to pertion of the day the undertone apand the closs was steady, without in-past week was active in such articles as are required at holidays, but warm, moist weather interfered disastronely and free from dust, there is a good in- for dealers in game, dressed poultry and quiry; stains, especially when clean and other perishable articles of that kind, bright, are sought for. Holders show Yesterday the transactions at the produce exchange were not numerous or large, the holiday feeling peculiar to as follows: "The movement has sgain Christmas week developing itself. Corn been rather dail and the tone of the was in fair supply; about a thousand sacks were offering; nice white shelled was held at £0c, but only 48c was offering. One dealer reported that he had been offered 50c for 200 sacks of that description of corn, but he wanted alc. A small lot of 45 sacks sold at 50c and another lot went on private terms, it is supposed about 48c. Oats appear to have gone out of fashion at the stables, so little has been done in them of late; a fittle lot of 25 sacks, black, mixed, sold at 48c. Bran was little heard of at nominally $17 50; a small lot, 50 sacks, brought $17 75. Corn bran continues in good demand, and 50 sacks of it cold at $19. Ear corn was offering, to arrive, at 45%.
